528(c)(1) SUPPLEMENTAL STATEMENT

Said corporation hereby elects to be treated as a tax-exempt homeowners association as defined under section 528(c)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law) and is organized and operated to provide for the acquisition, construction, management, maintenance, and care of association property.

No part of the net earnings of this corporation inures (other than by acquiring, constructing, or providing management, maintenance, and care of association property, and other than by a rebate of excess membership dues, fees, or assessments) to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual.

The corporation may be dissolved with the assent given in writing and signed by not less than two-thirds of the members. Upon dissolution of the corporation, other than incident to a merger or consolidation, the assets of the corporation shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all of the liabilities of the corporation, be dedicated to an appropriate public agency to be used for purposes similar to those for which this corporation was created. In the event that such dedication is refused acceptance, such assets shall be granted, conveyed and assigned to any nonprofit corporation, association, trust or other organization to be devoted to such similar purposes.
